MEDIA ADVISORY

Donated Tractor Ready for Imaginative Play at Wonderscope

WHAT: Just in time for plowing the fields this spring...children will be able to hop up and play farmer upon a real tractor being delivered to The Regnier Family Wonderscope Children's Museum of Kansas City.

WHO: The Regnier Family Wonderscope Children's Museum of Kansas City

WHEN: Monday, March 8 at 9:30 am

WHERE: 443 E. Red Bridge Rd.
Kansas City, MO 64131

DETAILS: With this new addition to the museum's ½ acre of outdoor exhibit space, children will be able to get behind the wheel and pretend to tend to the crops – all with a view of an orchard, silo, and cow.

The tractor was donated by Jack and Betty Purinton from Lawson, Missouri, with the assistance of the John Deere Foundation and Heritage Tractor. The John Deere was given a fresh coat of paint and a Wonderscope logo to ready it for its new home.

About The Regnier Family Wonderscope Children's Museum of Kansas City
